

IWRO50 Residential Drinking System

How It WORKS

Reverse Osmosis is a modern technique used to purify water to a very high level. Unlike traditional filtration which only takes out particles of a certain size, Reverse Osmosis removes contaminants at a dissolved level in the water. This residential unit offers the finest drinking water for your home and will provide you with years of reliable service.

FEATURES
High efficiency and output membrane
Heavy duty mount with incorporated filter housings
Fully encapsulated membrane means trouble free with no o-rings to worry about
Easy to maintain
Quick release fittings throughout
New chrome faucet installed (other finishes available)
Compact storage tank ensures you will never run out of water
Automatic shut-off

EASY-OFF FILTERS
Filter wrench included
Service-Plan available
Quick release fittings

SPECIFICATIONS
Stage 1 Prefilter	5 Mic
Stage 2 Prefilter	Carbon Block
Stage 3 Prefilter	Carbon Block
Stage 4 Membrane	50 GPD
Stage 5 Polishing	Granular Carbon
Add-on available	4:1 Mineral Injection
Add-on available	RO Booster Pump
Add-on available	UV Protection
Storage Tank Size	4 Gal
Max Total Dissolved Solids	2000 ppm
Dissolved Solid Removal	Up to 99.9%

